

Join us for the Upper Grand River Watershed's

Winter Stonefly Hunt

Saturday, January 28th, 2012

1:00-3:00 pm

Meet at the Dahlem Center

7117 S. Jackson Rd.

Jackson, MI

Journey out into the Upper Grand River to find winter stoneflies. We will look for these aquatic insects—which are signs of good water quality—at sites throughout the watershed.

Come dressed for the weather. You will be outside for about an hour. Training and equipment is provided. Kids age 12 and up are welcome if accompanied by an adult.

Please RSVP by January 25th to Cecilia Govrik at 517-784-2800 x208 or cecilia.govrik@macd.org.

 Backup date in case of bad weather is Feb. 11th, 2012 from 1-3pm *****
